

MATTHEWS, George T. (ed.)

News and Rumor in Renaissance Europe

(The Fugger Newsletters)

New York, Capricorn Books, 1959.

HG 1229

Introduction	13
FUGGER NEWSLETTERS
1568-1573
1. Execution of Count Egmont and Count Horn in Brussels	28
2. The Death of Queen Elizabeth of Spain	31
3. Hawkins Trades Slaves for Silver	32
4. Piracy in South America	33
5. Treasure Ships reach Spain	34
6. The Northumberland Conspiracy	34
7. Hawkins and Drake	35
8. Auto de Fé in Seville	36
9. The Razing of the Cuilembourg House in Brussels	36
10. Unrest among the Miners in Schwaz	37
11. Rebellion in Chile and Peru	37
12. Insolvencies at the Exchange at Antwerp	38
13. War against the Moors	39
14. The Battle of Lepanto	39
15. The Norfolk Conspiracy	42
16. Swedes and Muscovites	42
17. Atrocities in Russia	43
18. St. Bartholomew's Eve	43
19. The Vicissitudes of Trade	44
20. The Driving Forth of the Jews from Vienna	45
21. Disturbances caused by Students in Paris	45
22. Famine in France	46
1574-1579
23. The Coronation of Rudolph II in Regensburg	47
24. English Money for the Netherlands	47
25. Death of King Sebastian of Portugal	48
26. Coronation of King Henry of Portugal	51
27. Murders in Paris	52
28. Auto de Fé in Seville	53
29. A Christ taken Prisoner	57
30. Tournaments in Prague	58
31. Portuguese Fears of Spain	61
32. The Spanish in Ireland	61
33. More on the Spanish in Ireland	61

34. The Swedes attack and plunder Narva	62
35. Henry of Navarre takes Fuenterrabia	63
36. French Simpathy with Henry of Navarre	64

1580-1585

37. Letter from Cochim in India	64
38. Death of the King of Portugal. Don Antonio and the King of Spain	71
39. Rather Turks than Spaniards	72
40. Military Preparations in England	72
41. The Spanish Fleet, what is its Destination?	73
42. Spain will get Portugal	73
43. Philip II named aggressor in Portugal	74
44. Huguenots of La Rochelle take some Spanish Treasure	74
45. An Earthquake	75
46. Civil War in France	75
47. The English in the Netherlands	76
48. The Spanish in Ireland again	76
49. The Spanish Conquer Lisbon	77
50. The Return of Drake	77
51. Execution of a Bohemian Nobleman for Street Robbery	78
52. Drake's Gifts to the Queen	79
53. Spanish Plots in Scotland	79
54. Trouble in Scotland and Ireland	80
55. Religious Feuds in Antwerp	80
56. Entry of His Imperial Majesty into Augsburg on the 27 th day of June 1582	82
57. Ban of Catholic Faith at Antwerp	83
58. Drake laying in Stores	84
59. Persecution of Jesuits in England	84
60. Marriage of Archduke Ferdinand with the Princess of Mantua	84
61. Festival of the Circumcision in Constantinople	88
62. Tribulations of Spanish Ships in Distant Seas	95
63. Warring Religions in Scotland	96
64. Attempts to bring in Turkey against Spain	96
65. Elizabeth ready to help the Northern Netherlands	97
66. Driving out of Devils in Vienna	97
67. Arrival of an American Treasure Fleet	98
68. The Plague in Prague	98
69. Plots against the Queen	98
70. Vengeance	99
71. Jesuits executed	99
72. Warlike Preparations in the Northern Netherlands	99
73. Antwerp Sea Trade in Difficulties	100
74. The Murder of William of Orange	100
75. Prospect of an English-French Alliance	101
76. France at last joins in the Alliance	101
77. The Derby Embassy to Paris	101
78. The Garter conferred upon the King of France	102
79. Nuptials of the Court of Philip II	102
80. The Spanish Besiege Antwerp	104
81. Death of Pope Gregory XIII	104
82. Persecution of the Huguenots in Marseilles	105
83. Attempt to Relieve the Siege of Antwerp	106

84. English troops at Middleburg. Drake at Sea	107
85. Trade slack at Lisbon	107
86. Trade diminishing at Cologne	108
87. The Taking of Antwerp	108
88. The Expulsion of Huguenots	109
89. The Sea unsafe for Trade	109
90. A Sorry Week in Augsburg	110
91. The Murder of the Signora Accaramboni	110
92. Leicester n Zeeland	114

1586-1591

93. The Plundering of Santo Domingo	115
94. Bad Times in Mexico	118
95. The Spanish on the Red Sea	119
96. Drake in Santiago, Porto Rico, and San Domingo	120
97. A French Consular Report from Egypt	121
98. Drake at Havana. Is there to be an Armada?	122
99. Drake in London with Great Wealth: the Queen shot at	122
100. The Wild Irish	123
101. Wrecks off Ostend and Savage Executions in London	123
102. Incrimination of Mary Queen of Scots	124
103. Arrival of part of a Fleet from New Spain	125
104. Trial of Mary Queen of Scots	125
105. Sentence of Death against Mary Stuart	126
106. A Wedding Feast in Prague	126
107. A fresh Plot traced to the Queen of Scots and the Guises	127
108. Execution of Mary Stuart	127
109. The Guises will fight England	134
110. Drake takes Cadiz	135
111. The Peru Fleet arrives safely	137
112. Judgment on the Witch Walpurga Hausmännin	137
113. Inducements to be held out to the Turks to join in the War	143
114. Turkish Preparations for War	144
115. Armada Preparations	144
116. The Great Armada is Made Ready to put to Sea	144
117. English Trade in the Elbe	145
118. Hans Limburger sees the Armada at Sea	146
119. The Pope is in alliance with Spain	146
120. Rumored Defeat of the Armada	147
121. Perhaps the Armada will not sail	147
122. Excommunication of the Queen of England	147
123. The Armada has been destroyed in a Storm	148
124. It has sailed home because of Plague	149
125. Anxiety to hear of the Success of the Armada	149
126. The Pope to raise Money for Spain	150
127. Hans Buttber's Account of the Armada	150
128. Armada beaten, English in Pursuit	151
129. The Armada back at Corunna. No great damage	152
130. Wholesale Destruction in the North Sea	152
131. The Pope regrets the Armada is back at Corunna	155
132. No Papal Favours till the Armada succeeds	155
133. No Audiences at Escorial	156

134. Rome hears the Armada has beaten the English	156
135. Prague rejoices over the Success of the Armada	156
136. A Circus Rider at the Imperial Court	156
137. Persecution of the Protestants in Salzburg	157
138. Lack of Powder prevents Pursuit	159
139. Return of the Circumnavigator Cavendish	160
140. Contraband of War	160
141. The End of the "Great Armada"	161
142. Mourning Prohibited in Spain	163
143. Peter's Pence	164
144. The Murder of the Guises	164
145. A Miracle in Weimar	165
146. France, Navarre, Poland, Sweden, Barbary and Morocco to join England against the Holy League	165
147. English Raid on Corunna	166
148. Drake at Lisbon	167
149. Rumors from Seville	169
150. The Murder of Henry III	170
151. Henry IV Ascends the Throne	170
152. Another Burning of Witches	171
153. The Famous Alchemist Bragadini	171
154. Gold from New Spain	173
155. Bragadini Works on	176
156. Letter from East India	176
157. Further Successes by Bragadini	179
158. Adultery at the Court of Saxe-Coburg	179
159. Genoese Money for the League	180
160. Probable Bankruptcies in Seville	181
161. A Scotch Alchemist in Prague	181
162. Execution of Two Children	181
163. Another Burning of Witches	182
164. Fresh Deeds of the Alchemist of Venice	182
165. A Miracle in Bohemia	183
166. Letter from Japan	185
167. Famine in Paris	187
168. Frightful Apparition in the Sky at Vienna	188
169. The Plague in Rome	188
170. Mighty Earthquakes in Vienna	188
171. Valuable Prizes taken by the English	189
172. Disturbances in Prague	190
173. The Pope declares Henry of Navarre a Heretic	191
174. Extensive Recruitment in Germany	192
175. The Indian Fleet sails under convoy	192
176. Rising in Saragossa	192
177. Intercepted Letter to the Queen by her Ambassador in France	193
178. The English after the Fleet from Mexico. Essex ready to start	196
179. The Spanish Fleet gets through	196
180. Death of Pope Gregory XIV	197
181. But it has lost heavily and spices will be dear	197
182. Election of Pope Innocent IX	199
183. Festivities at the Court of Dresden	199
184. About half the Spanish Fleet is lost. Bankruptcies	201

1592-1597

185. Disputes between Calvinists and Lutherans	201
186. War upon the Bandits in the Papal State	202
187. Birth of the Antichrist	202
188. War on the Roman Bandits	203
189. Nuptials at the Court of the King of Poland	205
190. Injunction against Merry-Making	206
191. Executions in Saragossa	207
192. Christening at the Court of Poland	208
193. Henry IV becomes a Catholic	209
194. Henry IV will do his best against Spain	209
195. The Dutch go to India	210
196. Wondrous Tidings from Berlin and Leipzig	210
198. Attempted Murder of Henry IV	212
199. Copy of the Judgment and Sentence passed by the Parliament in Paris upon Jean Chatel, a scholar who studied in the College of Jesuits, on account of the horrible murder which he dared to attempt against the King's Person. Also the sentence passed upon the Jesuits, who have been banished from the Kingdom of France as Corrupters of Youth, Destroyers of the Peace and Enemies of the King and State.	212
200. Moratorium in Spain	214
201. Why cannot the Pope help to pay for the War?	214
202. The Pope's Pardon for Henry IV	215
203. Peasant's War in Upper Austria	216
204. Drake at Havana	217
205. Dysentery in Drake's Fleet. Drake Dead.	217
206. Panic at a Bull Fight	218
207. The Funeral of His Most Serene Highness Ferdinand, Archduke of Austria and Tyrol	218
208. Capture and Looting of Cadiz	220
209. Spanish Financial Policy	221
210. The Peasant War in Upper Austria	221
211. King Philip defaults	222
212. Spanish Financial Policy	222
213. The English Doctor of the Prince of Juliers	223
214. Birth of a Monstrosity at Vienna	223
215. Philip II Borrows Again	223
216. The Peasant's War in Lower Austria	224
217. The Prince of Juliers and the English Doctor	225
218. The Prince of Juliers incurable	225
219. A Rain of Blood in Vienna	226
220. An Indian Rising in Peru	227
221. The Execution of the Rebellious Peasants in Vienna	227
222. The Jesuits assign England and Scotland to the King of Spain	228
223. Marriage of Emanuel of Portugal with Emily of Nassau	228
224. Excommunication of Cesare d'Este	229

1598-1604

225. The Prince of Juliers still not cured, Doctor useless	229
226. He is much better, so the English Doctor is some good after all	230
227. Danzig Ships for the Polish-Swedish War	230
228. A Present for the Mistress of Henry IV	230
229. Report of Peace between France, Savoy and Spain	230

230. Peace between Spain and France not to include England or Holland	231
231. English Cloth for the Continent	232
232. The Death of Philip II	232
233. Large Sales of Cloth at Middelburg	233
234. The Attempted Murder of Maurice of Nassau	233
235. Port Rico taken by the English	233
236. The War in Sweden	234
237. Philip's Lack of Money	235
238. The Edict of Nantes	236
239. The Dutch in the Straits of Magellan	236
240. Old Mexico	237
241. The English allowed to trade with Spain	237
242. The Baptism of Jesus in Rome	238
243. A Plague of Dolphins in the Mediterranean	238
244. Holland becomes a Colonial Power	238
245. The English must send Ships to India too	239
246. Divorce Plans of Henry IV	240
247. Family Tragedies in Rome	240
248. The Dutch Harass Portuguese Trade	240
249. Armistice in Ireland. Arrest of Essex	241
250. The Counter Reformation in Austria	241
251. The Monastic Life of Pope Clement VIII	243
252. Joyful Return of the English East India Fleet	243
253. Clement VIII hears Confessions	244
254. Conferences of Philip III of Spain for Purposes of obtaining Credit	244
255. England and Holland Conquer the Trade of the World	245
256. The Dangers of Sea Voyages	245
257. The Execution of the Earl of Essex	246
258. Persecution of Jews in Prague	246
259. A Lansquenet Bears a Child	247
260. The Spaniards besiege Ostend	249
261. 50 per cent Profit for Dutch Shareholders	249
262. Fresh Troops for Zeeland together with Peace Overtures	249
263. Peace Negotiations. The Spaniards ask too much	250
264. Peace concluded but terms not yet published	251
265. The Fall of the Fortress of Ostend	251
266. Skirmish at Sea between the English and Dutch	252
267. Rejoicings at Antwerp	252
268. Extraordinary Occurrence at the Imperial Court of Prague	253