

SEIDLMAYER, Michael

Currents of Mediaeval Thought

Oxford, Basil Blackwell, 1960.

HG 1249

General Bibliography and Abbreviations	iv
I. From Late Antiquity to Charles the Great	1
The Teachers of the Early Middle Ages	5
The Seven Liberal Arts	13
The Unity of the Middle Ages	16
The Church in the Early Middle Ages	20
The Classical Inheritance	26
The Pattern of the Period	31
II. Mediaeval Western Christendom. From the Carolingian Renaissance to the Beginnings of Courtly Civilization	34
The Carolingian Renaissance and the Formation of the Western Mind	34
Extension and Consolidation of the General Foundations	41
Ascetism	45
Byzantine Influences	49
Art and Architecture	51
III. The First Secular Culture. The Hohenstaufen Period	60
The Influence of Islam	63
Discovery of the Individual	65
The Religious Reaction	68
The Emancipation of Lay Society	72
Knighthood and Courtoisie	80
The Wandering Scholars	88
Thinkers and Reformers	90
Art and Architecture	101
IV. The Decline. From the End of the Hohenstaufen Period to the Reformation	108
Doubt and Indecision	109
Social Change. Towns and the Middle Classes	112
The Nobility in the Late Middle Ages	118
The Peasantry in the Late Middle Ages	120
Social and Religious Confusion	123
The Church in the Late Middle Ages	131
The Popularization of Religion	137
The Tinkers of the Late Middle Ages	144
Mysticism	151
Humanism	156